Contact: Annie Gaines (annie.gaines@libraries.idaho.gov)

E-Branch

Library websites hosted on <https://lili.org>, enabling Idaho libraries to establish a web presence with a minimum of specialized software or technical knowledge by library staff. Contact: Doug Baker (doug.baker@libraries.idaho.gov)

Emerging Trends

Support to libraries in their role as informal education sources that facilitate growth, change, and knowledge in their community members in a myriad of ways, including emerging trends like virtual reality, STEM programming, and makerspaces, along with other types of trends, such as the state's growing population of mid-life adults. Contact: Deana Brown (deana.brown@libraries.idaho.gov)

Idaho Library Statistics

Annual comprehensive compilations of services and programs, staff, collections, service area populations, funding, technology, connectivity, use, and expenditures for Idaho public libraries. Contact: Clay Ritter (clay.ritter@libraries.idaho.gov)

Let's Talk About It (LTAI)

Program that brings together humanities scholars and adult readers in public libraries to read and discuss literature that explores American values, history, culture, and more. Contact: LeAnn Gelskey (LeAnn.Gelskey@libraries.idaho.gov)

Libraries Linking Idaho (LiLI) Services

Through LiLI at <https://lili.org>, Idaho residents have free, 24/7 access to a wide range of online tools that support and enhance their education, business, and recreational needs. Includes: LiLI Databases (full-text content from trusted sources); LiLI Express (reciprocal borrowing between participating libraries); and ShareIdaho (Idaho's group services agreement with the Online Computer Library Center [OCLC] to provide resource-sharing and cataloging services to Idaho libraries.)

Contact: Marina Rose (Marina.Rose@libraries.idaho.gov)

Publications by the ICfL include: the Idaho library law manual, the Idaho annual public library statistics, as well as the following newsletters, which may be found at: <https://libraries.idaho.gov/publications>.

ICfL Newsletters:

“The Bookworm”

For librarians, parents, and teachers.

“Connections: Talking Book Service News”

For librarians and patrons of the Idaho Talking Book Service.

“Low Hanging Fruit”

Customizable by school librarians to provide school-specific information to teachers.

“The Nexus”

For the Idaho library community.

“The Scoop”

For librarians providing youth services.

Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) Grants

Federal funds awarded to the ICfL from the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) through its Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA). The grant funds are utilized in support of the ICfL’s programs and services.

Contact: Talela Florko (Talela.Florko@libraries.idaho.gov)

Make It at the Library

Support to Idaho libraries in emerging technologies and the creation of maker spaces, which include such subjects as coding, 3D printing, and video production, and facilitates critical thinking and the 21st-century skills that employers covet.

Contact: Deana Brown (deana.brown@libraries.idaho.gov)

Partnerships

The ICfL develops and maintains partnerships among Idaho libraries, agencies, organizations, and nonprofits which leverage resources for the benefit of communities throughout the state.
